

California Real Estate Economics, 3rd Edition, Update
By Ignacio Gonzalez, Consulting Editor

Summary of Changes

California Real Estate Economics was updated to include two new and relevant chapters on “Real Estate Trends in California” (Chapter 16) and “Understanding and Using Economic Data” (Chapter 17).

“Real Estate Trends in California” (Chapter 16) includes timely information on affordable housing, government intervention in the housing market (including redevelopment), smart growth (including green building), and the state of the real estate market in California (including subprime mortgages).

“Understanding and Using Economic Data” (Chapter 17) incorporates and updates the previous editions’ Appendices I and II includes U.S. population projections to 2030 (as adapted from the U.S. Bureau of the Census) and understanding, using, and interpreting the consumer price index (as adapted from the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor).

“California Facts” is now Appendix I, “California Counties” is now Appendix II, and “Internet Websites” is now Appendix III. The “Practice Exam and Answer Key” is now separated, and all true/false questions have been replaced with multiple-choice questions.

Additionally, new chapter quiz answers for Chapters 16 and 17 have been added to correlate with the new chapters and chapter quizzes.
